

SUMMER MUST-SEE

Make the most of the good weather and explore Andorra la Vella in the summer! Dozens of open-air activities and incredible landscapes will leave you awestruck. Should you come in summer, do not miss:

One of the most magical nights of the year takes place on 23rd June. Do not miss the Sant Joan's Eve celebration and take in the summer solstice fire festival, called falles, that takes place in the capital's Historic Centre. The event is organised by the Fallaires of Andorra la Vella.

The first Saturday of August marks the start of Andorra la Vella's city festival. Do not miss these three days full of activities, shows, concerts and much more, aimed at all audiences.

The tobacco fields are some of the most iconic images of Andorra's landscape. Take a stroll around Andorra la Vella and admire this typical sight in the Andorran valleys.

Do you want to find out more about the city's architectural heritage? If so, visit the Sant Andreu Chapel, which sits amid a rural landscape. Its location, in the heart of nature, makes it worth a visit in summer.
