

WINTER MUST-SEE

Winter in Andorra la Vella is magical! The snowy landscapes are a matchless setting that will that will make your stay unforgettable. Should you visit us in winter, you cannot miss:

With or without children, the Christmas Village of Andorra la Vella is the main attraction. The Christmas Market on the Plaça del Poble, the menairons' post office, the travelling shows and dozens of other activities are all there so that everyone can be immersed in a Christmas dream.

The tradition held on January 17th is one of the city's best for food lovers: the Sant Antoni escudella, a traditional Andorran stew made for the community on this day. Plaça Guillemó hosts the most popular escudella in the country. You will get to taste one of Andorra la Vella's most important dishes.

If you are lucky and it has snowed, take in the incredible winter-wonderland views from La Comella viewpoint, one of the most iconic tourist attractions in the city.

Discover the monumental work of Salvador Dalí in the heart of the city. Take a selfie with the sculpture La Noblesse du Temps in the background and you will have one of the most sought-after tourist pictures.
